DEPUTY

v.

Civil Action No. DKC-11-3278

Gregg L. Hershberger, et al., Defendants

Motion For Court To Seize Evidence

Comes now, David Brightwell, hereafter as the plaintiff request this honorable court to "seize and take into custody" the prison jeans that the plaintiff was wearing the day of his assault by the defendants on 2/5/11 and says:

1. Plaintiff states, that after speaking with a "certified paralegal" whom happen to be housed in the present cell next to him, cell- BC- 701, prisoner, Gregory Marshall #183-459 informed him that the court should seize and have the jeans the plaintiff was wearing the day of his assault by the defendants as evidence and "ephilint."

Plaintiff states, that the jeans will show how he, the plaintiff was dragged down the "tie" the morning of 2/5/11, by the defendants and how the jeans are "torn" on the "left pants" leg of the knee which was busted from being dragged on "C-tie" top tie reeks.

Wherefore, the plaintiff prays this court will grant the present motion.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: 2/28/13
